

Memory Game: Print out the PDF on Cardstock paper, cut out the cards lie them face down on the table. Mix the cards around, try to match up two of the same cards. This game is great from ages 3 and up, it helps kids with their memory skills. This is also a great way for smaller kids to understand the book, and movie before you introduce either one to them. (Photo Credit Walt Disney Studios)

Match up Game: Using the quotes below try to match up the quote with the character. Read the quote out loud, have the other person guess who said the quote. This game is great for memorization skills and for ages 7 and up. These quotes are from the book A Wrinkle In Time by Madeleine L'Engle. You can add your own quotes as well.

("Life, with its rules, its obligations, and its freedoms, is like a sonnet: You're given the form, but you have to write the sonnet yourself. - Mrs. Whatsit")

("Nothing is hopeless; we must hope for everything" -Mrs. Who)

("You're given the form, but you have to write the sonnet yourself. What you say is completely up to you" -Mrs. Whatsit )

("And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not." – Mrs. Who)

("There will no longer be so many unpleasant things too look at if responsible people do not do something about the unpleasant ones." – Mrs. Which)

("It was a shadow, nothing but a shadow. It was not even as tangible as a cloud. Was it cast by something? Or was it a Thing in itself?"- Meg Murry)

("Maybe I don't like being different" – Meg Murry)

(Reveals that Mr. Murry has been captured and is behind the dark shadow. –Mrs. Which)